KRISTU JAYANTI SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT ORGANISES ILS

Kristu Jayanti School of Management organised an International Lecture Series (ILS) - An interaction with Global Leaders on 7th July 2022, for its MBA students. Dr Justin Paul, Editor-in-Chief, International Journal of Consumer Studies, Professor, University of Puerto Rico, USA & University of Reading, UK was the guest speaker. Dr Aloysius Edward J., Dean and Dr M.K. Baby, Head School of Management were part of the programme.

Dr Justin Paul's interaction with students centred on understanding the impact of the pandemic on business, industry, organisations and nations. In line with this, Dr Justin Paul shared his experience during the pandemic and encouraged the students to stay motivated and to work hard with determination and dedication to succeed. He highlighted that 1.3 billion Indians are competitive as he spoke about how he overcame tasks and challenges. He also throws light on GDP growth rates, digital transitions during the pandemic, technology in Japan and strategic management by several companies. Dr Paul rightly quoted that "Nothing is impossible and sky is the limit" as he motivated the students to groom themselves with confidence and mentioned the relevance of survival versus success.
