

SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT, KRISTU JAYANTI COLLEGE, AUTONOMOUS, BENGALURU ORGANISED NATIONAL UNITY DAY 202

Kristu Jayanti School of Management marked a significant event in the spirit of unity and patriotism as they organised the National Unity Day on November 3, 2023 to pay homage to the contributions of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, the visionary leader who championed the cause of unity and integration within India. This event, hosted by Ms Anns Mary Jiji, was a source of inspiration for the audience as they gathered to pay their respects and delve into the life and work of Sardar Patel. Mr Suraj P, a first-year MBA student, extended a warm welcome, setting the stage for a day filled with camaraderie and engagement.

Distinguished student speakers, including Mr Ashlin Sajan Mathew, Ms Senjuti, and Mr Steve Suresh, shed light on the significance and objectives behind celebrating National Unity Day. Among the program highlights were a quiz conducted by Mr Johan Sam Ninan, focusing on the life and achievements of Sardar Patel, and a Poster competition centered on the theme "Unity in Diversity," facilitated by the event organisers. Participants had the privilege of taking the Rashtriya Ekta Divas pledge, administered by Mr Lino.

Mr M. K. Baby, Head of the School of Management, delivered an inspiring speech underscoring the importance of internalising Sardar Patel's values and incorporating them into daily life as responsible Indian citizens. Dr Joseph Charles, Coordinator of the School of Management, shared his insights with the students, adding depth to the celebrations. The event also witnessed the distribution of prizes for various competitions conducted as part of the Rashtriya Ekta Divas celebrations. Mr Alan expressed his gratitude to all participants, organisers, and attendees, highlighting their valuable contributions to the event's success. The National Unity Day event concluded with a collective rendition of the Indian National Anthem, symbolising the unity, togetherness, and patriotism that Sardar Patel tirelessly championed throughout his illustrious life. Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's enduring vision continues to inspire and guide all towards a harmonious and united India.
